Permanent Diaconate

Accepting the recommendations of the fathers of the Second Vatican Council, Pope Paul VI on June 18, 1967 restored the Permanent Diaconate (Sacrum Diaconatus Ordinem). Since the permanent diaconate was non-existent in the Latin Rite since the fifth century. The ministry of deacons is that of service to God and the people of God in various acts of charity. Liturgically a deacon can proclaim the gospel, preach and assist with the distribution of the Eucharist. Outside of mass, a deacon can preside at baptisms, weddings, funeral services, benediction and communion services. Deacons receive the Sacrament of Holy Orders like priests and bishops. We are happy to have Deacon Hosea (Jean) Bennett and his diaconal ministry at Resurrection.

Stewardship

"The Pastoral Letter next considers the community of faith, the people of God, which is formed by the new covenant in and through Christ. Each member of the church shares in the responsibility for its mission; each is called to practice stewardship for the church."
